Dear Harold –

A quick word, scribbled while under the hair-dryer.

No – I have no reason to think that Epstein is homosexual. I used the word "eunuch" figuratively – for his lack of guts, lack of any sense of commitment or moral fervor.

The same is true where the Government is concerned. I've never had any reason to think that a possibility. Ed is basically – excuse the expression – a loner, interested in people only if they are "important" and in causes only if they can be a stepping stone to his greater success and affluence.

I think he is a creep and a queer only in the sense that he seems to have no human feelings – I don't even recall ever seeing him eat or drink. Sylvia
